

Keep the federal government out of state affairs!
The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved my time at home by reducing the number of unwanted calls at my home from approximately 20 per week to zero. Indiana's law has been extremely effective in that I only receive calls that I want to receive.